Service to country doesn’t always end when you hang up your uniform. Whatever your plans may be when you leave the Air Force, one-on-one support is available to assist with planning your return to casual Friday’s. Airman and Family Readiness is your first stop to take advantage of available military transition assistance programs. Gain the knowledge and practical tools you need to make the switch back to civilian life with confidence.

Midway into my Air Force career I road tripped down to beautiful Okaloosa Island with classmates from Maxwell. To live surrounded by white sandy beaches, emerald green water, and blazing sunsets seemed unimaginable in those days. To be stationed here and then commit to making this my forever home is a dream come true. Those of us with access to Hurlburt can easily take advantage of the abundant fishing, kayaking, surfing, boating or even geocaching with the help of our Outdoor Recreation. But, what good are all the many opportunities or activities if nobody knows they exist?

As a customer, it frustrates me to learn after the fact about a special or event that seems to exactly match my interests. Free exercise classes? Special trips or tours? Customer discounts? I’ve missed a lot of them--on and off base. As a marketing professional, I have to wonder: if I didn’t know about an event, how many other interested people were also unaware?

The seemingly obvious answer to the awareness problem would be to increase the amount of advertising for events. After all, Airmen benefit mentally and physically when taking advantage of legacy morale, welfare and recreation (MWR or Services) programs. Heightening advertising efforts can up participation in programs; but, the single most effective advertising technique is friends sharing info with friends.

The 1 SOFSS marketing team is working hard to improve info sources about happenings around Hurlburt so the community can be aware and share. We don’t want anyone to miss any opportunity to recharge, recreate, or even just relax.

Watch postings on the front and back gate marquees. The 1 SOFSS website, MyHurlburt.com, is a treasure trove of information: operating hours, phone numbers, specials, menus, an interactive calendar, and the brand NEW Community Connection Directory.

Thanks to customer feedback, the marquee slides can be viewed from the web site. Have an idea to share? Tell us using the weekly survey. We’ll say thank you by entering participants in the weekly FSS Gift Card drawing.

Awareness and Hurricane Season go hand in hand. Be sure to download the 1 SOW App for push notifications and FSS event details. While you’re at it, “like” the Hurlburt Force Support page on Facebook and then follow us.

Helping you stay informed helps us meet our objective in 1 SOFSS: to provide Hurlburt with world-class customer service and support. Keep up with us and then tell your friends. Better yet, bring a friend or two with you on your next Hurlburt adventure. Watch for and use the hash-tags #didyouknow and #myhurlburtlife.

Every day reminds me what a lifetime of Air Force experience taught me— the measure of an organization is the quality of its people. When you thumb through this edition of MyHurlburt Life you’ll see Services people who make it their job to deliver more than just great fun. Our squadron is the lynch pin to resiliency for Air Commandos and the community cornerstone for our Air Force families; we are a thread in the Air Force fabric that binds us all together.
Where’s the Cache?
Geocaching and Hurlburt Field

Are you ready for an anytime, anyplace adventure? The Landing Zone has launched a Geocache “treasure hunting” campaign in our local area and anyone can participate. Geocaching is made to take adventurers like you to new places you’d never thought of exploring with the goal of discovering “hidden treasure” or a cache.

So how does it work? With over 2 million geocaches worldwide, it’s a straightforward game that’s free to play. Simply download the “Geocache App” (www.geocaching.com) on your phone, choose a Geocache nearby and go find the treasure. Each adventure is given its own name and set of challenges the adventurer must overcome; be it a really good hiding spot or a few mile hike. Each Geocache comes with a unique name that hints towards the hidden treasure so you can choose the one that speaks to you. For example, a few of the Landing Zone’s Caches are called “Captain Spooky,” “Pirate Stash 2,” and “Davy Jones’ Locker.”

Hurlburt Field has joined the Geocache game to encourage our airmen and their families to get outside and get active. Our Landing Zone staff has taken great care to hide unique finds like a special airmen’s coin all around the area surrounding the base, local trails, and even underwater locations at local dive sites. Download the app and get moving, it’s a great day to discover some cache.

Fried or Grilled Chicken Salad or Wrap
Served with lettuce, tomatoes, carrots, cheddar cheese and your choice of dressing. (add Buffalo Sauce $1.00)

Bulgogi
Korean beef bulgogi, fried rice, cucumber kimchee, spicy soy sauce and an egg roll.

Open Faced Roast Beef Sandwich
Tender roast beef on two slices bread covered in beef gravy served with mashed potatoes, beef gravy and a side salad with your choice of dressing.

Taco Salad
Seasoned taco meat, refried beans, lettuce, diced tomatoes and onions, cheddar cheese in a fried flour tortilla bowl. (Sour cream & jalapeños upon request)

Catfish Plate
Catfish fillet served with fries and hush puppies.

Hidden Pond is an “Easy Grab and Go” cache near an abandoned lot off of Highway 98. The cache has been known to carry trinkets left behind by locals.

Release the Kraken is a cache located in Oak Tree Park at the end of the nature hike. It is kid friendly and a local favorite.
Col. Todd Fogle thanked Outdoor Maintenance for their dedication to Hurlburt Field’s beautification. Next time you see Joe, James or Jamie thank them for all they do...in the heat and humidity. Way to go guys!

On Friday 14 August, The Landing Zone at Hurlburt Field, Fla. held the Royal Glow Run event. The event kicked off with Zumba starting at 7 p.m. and the run started at 8 p.m. Runners, Walkers, and Families (strollers welcome) dressed up in their neon and bright colored gear and glow accessories to maximize the fun! Caslyn, Erica and Jacki (pictured above) always come out in tutus with their strollers and group Fit4Mom. Air Force Retiree S. Johnston (pictured left) never misses the Glow Run. Share your Glow Run pictures with us on Facebook at Hurlburt Force Support or #myhurlburtlife.

We would like to thank our sponsor Run With It for providing prizes. (No Federal Endorsement Intended)

The Monster Mash Glow Run event is on Oct. 23. What will you dress up as?
Disaster Supply Kits

Plan for a supply that will sustain your family for three to seven days. Pack it up ahead of time, if possible. If a storm arrives, all the items will be in one place or, if evacuating, items will be ready to load into your vehicle. A kit should include:

- Non-perishable food
- Bottled water (1 gallon per person per day)
- Non-electric can opener
- First-aid supplies
- Prescribed medications
- Portable radio & flash lights
- Batteries
- Change of clothes & extra shoes
- Toiletries/hygiene Items
- Cash & Important papers
- Blankets, pillows, sleeping bags & inflatable mattresses,
- Diapers and formula (if needed)
- Books, toys and games for children

Also, ensure your vehicle is fully fueled and ready for any necessary travel.

According to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Association (NOAA), forecasters are predicting 6 to 10 named storms of which 1 to 4 could become hurricanes, including 0 to 1 major hurricane within the Atlantic region.

Preparation is one of the keys to alleviating some of the stress involved when storms hit the area. It’s essential to understand the terminology and therefore severity of any oncoming storms, which items are essential for supply kits, the location of installation and local area shelters and also, what to expect if the active duty member in your family is assigned to the Ride-Out Team.

Hurricane Conditions (HURCON)

In addition to information circulated by the local media, the following messages will be posted on the Hurlburt Field electronic message boards. Unless the message reads “Exercise”, these are the actual hurricane conditions in the area.

HURCON 5: General Hurricane Season
June 1 – November 30

HURCON 4: 96 Hours from onset of 50kt/57mph winds

HURCON 3: 72 Hours from onset of 50kt/57mph winds

HURCON 2: 48 Hours from onset of 50kt/57mph winds

HURCON 1: 24 Hours from onset of 50kt/57mph winds

HURCON 1E: 50kt/57mph winds are occurring and other dangerous conditions associated with the storm are present.

HURCON 1R: Storm hazards have passed but damage may persist. Recovery operations begin. Initially, only emergency responders are released to move about.

- 99.5FM

East/West: I-10,
North/South: Hwy 87, I-65, I-55

Hurricane Ride-Out Team

A multi-function team (approximately 300 personnel) provides core capability to prepare for, ride out, and recover from a significant storm event. The Ride-Out Team is necessary to ensure continuity of operations, and to perform damage assessment and expedient repair following a storm.

For military members assigned to the Ride-Out Team, their families will evacuate without them and will need to identify family/special needs early with their chain of command.

Ensure information in the Air Force Personnel Accountability and Assessment System (AFPAAS) is accurate and up-to-date. AFPAAS standardizes a method for the Air Force to account, assess, manage, and monitor the recovery and reconstitution process for personnel and their families affected and/or scattered by a wide-spread catastrophic event. It also provides valuable information to all levels of the Air Force chain of command, allowing commanders to make strategic decisions which facilitate a return to stability.

Installation Disaster Shelters

(only open up to Cat 2 storms)

- Commando Fitness Center
- Aderholt Fitness Center
- Youth Center

In the event of an impending hurricane, the local community will open off-base shelters. In the event of a mandatory evacuation, shelters will be closed.

Hurlburt Field – Airmen and their families shopping and dining at Army & Air Force Exchange Service stores and restaurants on Hurlburt Exchange generated $492,824.06 last year for Air Force quality-of-life programs.

Over the past 10 years, the Exchange has provided more than $2.4 billion in dividends to military programs.

“Roughly two-thirds of Exchange earnings are paid to the Services’ morale, welfare and recreation programs, while the other third goes toward building new stores and renovating facilities,” said Hurlburt Exchange Main Store Manager, Barbara Ross.

The Exchange’s mission of providing quality goods and services at competitively low prices while generating earnings to support quality-of-life efforts means that the Exchange benefit is more than finding a good price on merchandise. This structure ensures that shoppers who take advantage of their benefit at the Hurlburt Exchange or online www.shopmyexchange.com are working to better their communities.

“100 percent of Exchange earnings serve Airmen and their families,” said Ross. “When service members shop or dine at their Exchange, they’re investing in their own community, making it a better place to live and work.”

The Army & Air Force Exchange Service is a joint nonappropriated fund instrumentality of the Department of Defense and is directed by a Board of Directors which is responsible to the Secretaries of the Army and the Air Force through the Service Chiefs of Staff. The Exchange has the dual mission of providing authorized patrons with quality merchandise and services at competitively low prices and generating non-appropriated fund earnings as a supplemental source of funding for military morale, welfare and recreation programs. To find out more about the Exchange history and mission or to view recent press releases please visit our Web site at http://www.shopmyexchange.com.

“The Transition Assistance Program (TAP) is even more relevant today; with the changing economy and dwindling job market. Separates and retirees are encouraged to take advantage of the resources available to them and TAP is certainly a great place to start,” said LaVonne Vasquez, Community Readiness Consultant at the Airman & Family Readiness Center.

TAP has been expanded to include five days of assistance, instead of three and is now named the Transition GPS (Goals, Plans, Success) Workshop. How does this enhance the program? Additional components include a personality assessment, guidance on translating an Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC) to civilian resumes; the assignment of a personal transition counselor guiding you step-by-step through the process, resulting in an Individualized Transition Plan (ITP), 12-month post budget, and a resume.

The Transition GPS workshop also includes the Veteran’s Benefits Briefing I & II; a Department of Labor (DOL) employment 3-day workshop, as well as brainstorming sessions, discussion on life changes, mentorship, special issues, a financial module, as well as 2-day tracks to include Higher Education, Entrepreneur (Boots to Business) and Career Technical. Spouses are encouraged to attend.

Please note that to attend any workshop; the member must complete the Pre-Separation Briefing as this is their “ticket to attend” which is held every Thursday from 0800-1000 hours at the Airman & Family Readiness Center. The military member does not need separation/retirement orders to attend the Pre-Separation Briefing, but the separatee must have a year out from separating and the retiree needs two years from their retirement date.

The mandates for the Transition GPS Program include the Pre-Separation Briefing, Transition GPS 5-day Workshop which includes the VA Benefits Briefing, and the completion of the Capstone, DD Form 2958. The Transition counselors are assigned to the members based on the initial of their last name.

For information on Transition GPS workshops call a Transition Counselor at the Airman & Family Readiness Center at 884-5441 or by visiting myhurlburt.com and navigating to the Airman & Family Readiness Center page.
The Ties That Bind

Did you know Federal employees take an oath of office similar to military members? For a third of these civilians, civil service is not their first time swearing to support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America. Like most bases, Hurlburt benefits from a wealth of experience and knowledge retirees and veterans bring back to the Air Force. Meet some of our civilians continuing to serve:

Vanessa Tillman, MSgt (Ret) - 20 years
NAF HUMAN RESOURCES
What do you wish you knew prior to retiring that you would pass on to those nearing this landmark?
“Every military member should take advantage of the training and education opportunities. Do not retire without at least an A.A. or CCAF degree. Your experience and degree will make moving into your second career easier.”

Roger Noyes, CMSgt (Ret) - 30 years
1SOFSS DEPUTY DIRECTOR
Why did you choose to serve at Hurlburt Field?
“The Special Operations mission, it doesn’t get any more important than that. We’re at the tip of the spear.”

Terry Jensen, Col. (Ret) - 38 years
RETIREE AFFAIRS DIRECTOR
What do you wish you knew prior to retiring that you would pass on to those nearing this landmark?
“Make sure you attend and ask questions at the TAP briefing.”

The Hurlburt Exchange and Commissary proudly serve approximately 35,490 retirees and their family members. To salute their service and show appreciation, the Exchange will host the annual “Still Serving” weekend at the Hurlburt Field Exchange from Thursday, September 24 through Saturday, September 26; the Commissary’s case lot sale continues through Sunday, September 27.

A “Still Serving” sales and benefits information flyer should arrive in the mailboxes of Hurlburt Field retirees in mid-September. The flyer offers exclusive savings on a wide variety of products.

In addition to the Exchange’s “Still Serving” event, Force Support (FSS) recreation activities have specials that weekend for our valued retirees. Be sure to stop by Hurlburt Lanes and Gator Lakes Golf Course, as well as the Friends of the Library Book Sale outside at the Main Exchange. Visit the FSS information table inside the Main Exchange on Thursday, Sep 24 for games and prizes.

There is plenty of incentive for retirees to come and rediscover the value The Exchange and Force Support continues to offer America’s great Airmen, past and present.

The Hurlburt Field Youth Program is excited to announce Alvin Koposko as the new Sports Director. Previously, Koposko served our Youth Program and community as a volunteer for our photo club and digital arts, “The First Tee” golf program and the local ballet academy. Raised in Pittsburgh, Pa., he is a huge football fan and an all-time supporter of the Steelers. Koposko currently attends North West Florida State College where he plans to complete his Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Management. A well-equipped coach and mentor, Koposko has over 12 years of coaching experience. His specialties include: football, golf, baseball, soccer and more.

What does he have in store for our Youth Sports? “To build an educational-athletic program that provides a healthy way of life for the young people in our community,” says Koposko. Within 6 months he plans to revitalize the Running Club. A year from now he is determined to win for Hurlburt the 2016 National Alliance for Youth Sports (NAYS) “Excellence in Youth Sports Award” and “Coach of the Year.”

Parents can expect Koposko’s passion for sports to enhance every single athlete though a high-quality experience. His goals are to use the principles of positive coaching, having fun in practices and games, and create a team-centered atmosphere for all who participate. He believes sports provide “life lessons” that have value beyond the playing field. “Athletics teach youth the skills, tactics and strategies of a game to improve them as both a player and an individual,” said Koposko.

The motto driving Koposko’s vision for the Youth Sports Program: “We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence then is not an act, but a habit.” -Aristotle
